The Court is in receipt of the parties' stipulated motion for an extension of the discovery and related deadlines. The Court notes that setting a dispositive motions deadline for July 11, 2025 means that those motions will not be ripe (let alone resolved) until over a week after the scheduled pretrial conference on August 5, and on the literal eve of trial, circumstances that neither the parties nor the Court would appreciate. Furthermore, while this is the first extension the parties have requested, the grounds provided—that the parties need to “continue discovery and engage in potential resolution”—do not justify the nearly four-month extension they have requested. Accordingly, and finding good cause therefor, the Court hereby grants the parties a modest extension of the discovery and related deadlines, as follows:

Deadline	Current Date	New Date
Jury Trial Date	August 18, 2025
Deadline for joining additional parties	August 6, 2024
Deadline for filing amended pleadings	August 13, 2024
Reports from expert witness under FRCP 26(a)(2) due	January 21, 2025	March 21, 2025
Discovery completed by	February 28, 2025	April 18, 2025
All dispositive motions must be filed by	March 21, 2025	May 2, 2025
All motions in limine must be filed by	July 15, 2025
Joint Pretrial Statement	July 21, 2025
Pretrial conference	August 5, 2025
Length of Jury Trial	5 days

It is so ordered. DATED this 7th day of February, 2025.
